The Barstow Ticket.

Of the head of the Barstow ticket, Mr. JAMES B. CROSS, we have already had our say. The nomination, bearing his political antecedents and associations, is a very fair one. For Lieut. Governor, the Convention made choice of Mr. E. D. CAMPBELL, of La Crosse, "a new man," as the Argus, the party organ, styles him, and as yet only known to fame, as Mayor of La Crosse. His principal competitors were SAT CLARK, and H. M. BILLINGS. Mr. D. W. JONES, the present Secretary of State, was renominated without opposition—a proper compliment to a good officer. GABRIEL BOUCK, of Winnebago, was nominated for Attorney General by 73 votes against 51 for E. S. BRAGG, of Fond du Lac. This, at least, is a great improvement. Mr. L. C. DRAPER, now Secretary of the State Historical Society, and a very fit man for that post, was nominated, without much opposition, for State Superintendent, for which he is not fit at all. For Bank Comptroller, JOEL G. SQUIRES, of Mineral Point, was nominated by 74 votes, against 43 for Mr. DENNIS, the present incumbent, and 17 for J. E THOMAS. This is a change for the worse. Mr. DENNIS has discharged the duties of the office with signal ability, during four years past, and deserved, though he did not desire, the compliment of a re-nomination. CARL HABICH, of Dane, Clerk in the Treasurer's Office for some years past, was nominated for State Treasurer, by 88 votes against 60 for THEODORE CONERY, of Outagamie. We think it high time that the care of the Treasury was transferred to new hands. EDWARD MCGARRY, the present State Prison Commissioner, was re-nominated, mainly on the ground that he had suffered persecution. This persecution, as we have already stated, originated with his own political friends, who preferred charges against him which our Republican Governor did not think sufficient to warrant his removal. McGarry and his friends, however, worked this "persecution" card with great address, and so compassed a renomination. Such is the Barstow ticket.

Matters in New York.

The Telegraph, Saturday, reported more failures in New York, and private despatches added to the list names not found in the public accounts. Stocks continue to tumble, and it would seem that some of them cannot well get much lower. Confidence in nearly all Railroad securities is gone for the time being, and it will require the best of management, on the part of Railway Directors, to regain even a portion of what they have lost. Since the crash had to come, it has come in good time: just as the immense crops of the country are about to be marketed. They will help materially to adjust balances and settle things. Had the break up occurred at the close of navigation, the evil effects would have been much greater and more wide spread.

WANTS TO THINK ABOUT IT.—The Madison Patriot (dem.) runs up the ticket, minus the head; taking time to consider whether it will support CROSS, or not. The American in this city had not, up to its last issue, decided whether to swallow the ticket, whole or part, or reject it altogether. The pill is evidently a bitter one for the Anti Barstow men.

Delegates to the Convention.

The following is a complete list of the Delegates to the Republican State Convention from the several Assembly Districts of this city:

First and Seventh Wards.—B. DOMSCHKE, E. M. JOSSLIN.

Second Ward.—A. J. LANGWORTHY, WM. FRANKENFURTH.

Third Ward.—HENRY MIDDLETON, H. FREEMAN.

Fourth Ward.—S. M. BOOTH, J. FORD.

Fifth Ward.—GREGOR MENZEL, WM. GOODNOW.

Sixth and Ninth Wards.—L. COMSTOCK, R. W. PIERCE.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES.—Racine City elected J. O. BARTLETT and JNO. VOUGHAN Delegates to the Republican State Convention.

The Eastern District of Kenosha County sends C. C. SHOLES and WM. SMITH. The North District of Sauk County, G. VAN STEENWYK and C. ARMSTRONG.

QUICK.—On Saturday afternoon we were indebted to our fellow-citizen, Mr. JAMES BONNELL, just returned from New York, for a N. Y. Express of Thursday afternoon. Mr. BONNELL left N. Y. at 6 P. M., Thursday, by the Hudson River Road, and taking the N. Y. Central, Great Western, Michigan Central and Lake Shore roads, reached home at half-past 1 P. M. on Saturday. That is quite fast enough.

NEBRASKA ELECTION—CHAPMAN DEFEATED.—The Wyoming (N. T.) Telescope of the 18th, gives returns from the whole Territory as follows:

Ferguson	1,553
Chapman	1,559
Thayer	1,479
Rankin	1,110
Ferguson's plurality	94

AMERICAN RAILROADS.—The New York Evening Post says the aggregate length of all the railroads in the United States is about twenty thousand miles, with a united capital stock of nearly three hundred and eighty-five millions of dollars, and a bonded debt of four hundred millions. To this must be added the floating debt, probably not far, if any, short of another one hundred millions; making a grand total of nine hundred millions of dollars expended in railroad property, management and mismanagement.

HOTEL BURNED.—The Astor House, at Green Bay, was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock A. M., on the 26th instant. The Green Bay Advocate says that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Barstow Platform.

The following resolutions, reported by A. T. GRAY, Ex-Governor BARSTOW'S Secretary of State, constitute the platform of the Barstow party for the approaching fall election:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Wisconsin, adhere with unswerving fidelity to the principles of the national Democracy, as the same are declared in the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention, and that upon the distinguished statesman now the Chief Magistrate of the Union, they rely with implicit faith for a full exemplification of those principles in the administration of our national affairs.

Resolved, That the rights of the States, and of every citizen of the United States, are amply protected under the federal constitution; that it is the pleasure and duty of every good democrat to yield obedience to existing laws, and to the judgments of the legal tribunals of the land; and that we look with deep abhorrence upon the reckless spirit of nullification that animates the political organization over which we triumphed at the last Presidential election, and against which, at the coming state election, we are to contend for the victory.

Resolved, That we hold in detestation the Anti-American and intolerant spirit which aims to curtail the privileges of those who, coming from other lands, seek to be citizens of the United States, and that the Democratic party of this State will, as it has ever done, frown indignantly on every attempt to interfere with the existing laws relative to naturalization.

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to the extension of the right of suffrage to the negro race, and will never consent that the odious doctrine of negro equality shall find a place upon the statute books of Wisconsin.

Resolved, That experience has demonstrated the correctness of the principle, early laid down by the Democratic party of Wisconsin, that the State shall be kept disengaged from participation in all improvements or enterprises which properly belong to localities or private organizations, and that adherence to this doctrine will alone preserve our State government from being a party to such monopolies as are now overriding many of the older States.

Resolved, That we will arrive as a party to promote, through the legislative and administrative departments of our State, a careful economy in the expenditure of the public moneys and a judicious application of them to legitimate objects.

THE TORNADO LAST WEEK.—We learn from the Ozaukee Advertiser that the tornado which devastated Woodlands, and the La Crosse R. R. last week, passed over Ozaukee, doing serious damage. The Advertiser says,

The dwelling owned and occupied by Hon. S. Austin White on Canal street, was taken from its foundation and carried a distance of 60 feet without injuring any member of the family, and doing but little damage to the building. Dr. Porter's barn was carried some 40 feet; Mr. Ramsay lost some very excellent fruit trees and one chimney from his house. Judge Williams' barn was nearly blown down, his house corrice, which was brick, blown off, and his fences were no where to be found. J. P. DeCourdres lost the whole of the roofing of his story dwelling, beside fences and out houses.

Lewis Teed found his house minus two chimneys. Farther down street—Orman Coe lost two chimneys from his house and the most of his fence. Next, the Catholic Church lost its roof. The new tannery building was blown down and the material scattered far and wide. A new barn, owned by Duress and Dean, built in connection with the distillery, 40X 80 feet was torn all to pieces and thrown in every direction over South Bluff. Mr. Gardner's house was destroyed and a number of others slightly damaged. The storm lasted about ten minutes, and then passed on to Lake Michigan, leaving Ozaukeans to gather up the fragments. What is remarkable to note no person was injured; all seemed quite as willing to laugh as to cry over the result.

From the country we have learned news of the storm as far as Saukville, and find the damages there quite similar to our own. On the old King place the wing to the upright dwelling was blown down. Acres of timber in that town was laid flat to the ground, and some of it split into fence rails and distributed in every direction.—Fences generally were carried off. Stacks of grain, hay and grain in the field were blown away. We cannot estimate the damage, though it must be great.

MILWAUKEE AND HORICON R. R.—The following paragraph from the Stevens Point Pinery, of the 27th inst., is but one among numerous instances of the popularity of the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. enterprise among the Farmers, Bankers and Business men of Central Wisconsin:

We learn from M. Esen, that Messrs. Huyssen & Scheffer, Exchange Bankers of this village, have effected a negotiation with him for twenty-five thousand dollars more of the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. Co.'s Stock. This in addition to what they have already taken, places these gentlemen among the very heaviest of the many large stockholders of this Road, and is another evidence of the popularity of this enterprise in this vicinity.

FROM KANSAS.—The correspondent of the St Louis Democrat, writing from Kansas at large—without date, says:

Not satisfied with disfranchising nineteen counties, the foreign element, and this year's emigration, the ruffians have summoned upwards of two hundred free State men to appear at Lecompton for trial on the day of election. This is intended to prevent them from voting. What next?

AN IMPORTANT DISTINCTION.—After the second formal ballot for Governor had been taken, last evening, we overheard the following conversation between two prominent Democrats in the Convention:

Cross Democrat.—I'll bet you a hat that CROSS will be nominated on the next ballot.

Anti-Cross Democrat.—Well, I'll bet you two hats that he won't be elected next November!

Neither party inclined to bet on the terms proposed.—Madison Journal.

ARREST OF A MURDERER.—A police officer arrived in this city on Thursday from Wisconsin, and procured a requisition from Governor CHASE for a person supposed to be JONES, who murdered officer BEEBE, in this city, some three years ago. The following is said to be the statement of the Wisconsin officer upon which the requisition was obtained:

"A person, now supposed to be Jones, was detected in a heavy robbery in Wisconsin, and lodged in a county jail. Under the impression that he was connected with a gang of robbers, the following artifice was resorted to, to ascertain the fact:

A detective policeman, under pretence of having dealt in counterfeit money, was lodged in jail, and placed in the same cell with Jones, when mutual revelations of the numerous crimes of which each had been guilty, their narrow escapes, &c., soon followed. Among other things Jones related the particulars of Beebe's murder, and pointing to his neck, remarked in a jocose manner—"I wouldn't give much for that, if they ever get me in Columbus."

SCHOOL LAND SALE AT SUPERIOR, WIS.—The Commissioners of School lands—sold on the 18th inst., a considerable portion of the School Lands in this county. The prices ranged from $1,25 to $5,00 per acre. Considerable interest was felt in the sale, and would have brought much higher prices if they had been subject to outside competition.

We hear considerable fault found with the manner in which the Commissioners managed their trust. In some instances the pre-emptors were disregarded, and in at least one instance of which we are cognizant, an actual settler for some two years part on a valuable and improved school section had his lands sold from under him to satisfy the rapacity either of the Commissioners themselves, or of some of their protegés who make their visitations with the Commissioners at every sale, and who could not carry out their speculations so successfully without the connivance of some one or more in authority.

We had thought the system of School Land plunder had about come to a close, but it appears that that system, inaugurated so successfully four years ago, is still in profitable operation.—Superior Chronicle.

ARREST OF JOHN THOMPSON.—John Thompson, the well known Wall street banker, is under arrest by the Sheriff on the suit of the Metropolitan Bank. It appears that he sent his check thousand dollars, for that amount of country bank notes which he have been redeemed by him. The bank on which it was drawn refused to certify it, whereupon one of the officers of the Metropolitan took it to Mr. Thompson and demanded the return of the bills. On this being refused a complaint was made, and he was arrested by the Sheriff. He refused to return ten thousand of bills to the American Exchange Bank in the same manner.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, Aug. 27th.

Visit to George Esterly's Farm—Great Reaper Trial—Sixteen Acres of Wheat Cut in One Afternoon with One Pair of Horses—The Quickest Work on Record.

On Tuesday afternoon last, in company with several other gentlemen from this place, we paid a visit to the farm of Mr. George Esterly, on Heart Prairie, about seven miles from this village, to witness a great trial of Mr. Esterly's celebrated Reaping Machine, manufactured by him in this place, he having informed us that it was his intention to cut more grain that afternoon than was ever before cut with one pair of horses. Before our party reached the ground they had a field of sixteen acres blocked out, and the team was fairly settled to the work. The field was a parallelogram, being eighty rods long by thirty six wide, containing sixteen acres more or less, and although Mr. Esterly did not express himself confident of cutting the whole piece before dark, yet he thought he should be able to cut over fifteen acres.

They commenced on the field at 12 o'clock and ten minutes, and at half-past seven the sixteen acres were fairly reaped, the horses not being by any means used up, and the machine performing its work throughout in such a manner as to elicit praise of every person present. Un ll about five o'clock the team was not urged at all, not sweating in the least degree, and working easily and without any show of weariness.

This reaper cut five feet seven inches, and although the grain, owing to the late rain, was badly "crinkled," the machine cut it all, though making more work for the raker.

It may be doubted whether so large a field of grain was ever before cut by one team in the same number of hours, and if any machine has ever performed so much work we should like to hear of it.—Whitewater Register.

THE OHIO LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY.—The attaching creditors of the Ohio Trust are understood to have consented to the appointment of a General Receiver for the New York office. Mr. LANE and Mr. FOSTER, Solicitors, are named for this duty. Private dispatches to-day from the West reflect a quieter state of things from the disaster than was apprehended. Arrangements are already made by telegraph, for removing a number of the Ohio banks accounts to Messrs Winslow, Lanier & Co., and Messrs. Atwood & Co. The involvements of the Trust agency here are said to be about $1,400,000 on deposit accounts, and about $2,000,000 or $2,500,000 on local loans and over-drafts. Against these are advances to the principal office at Cincinnati, advances on Ohio State Stock, advances to some of the Railway Companies on their bonds, and suspended individual loans and debts of various character. An inventory is now being prepared for the Receiver.—N. Y. Times 27th.

The Turner Festival.

The Annual Festival of the Turner Band of North America, takes place in our city to-day and to-morrow. The programme of the exercises will be found in our advertising columns. A numerous attendance of Turners, from our own and other States, is confidently expected. They commenced arriving on Saturday last; upwards of 300 having reached our city that day. Among the number were some 75 from Chicago, 25 from St. Louis, and delegations from Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Burlington and Dubuque, Iowa, St. Anthony, Minnesota, and from Madison, Janesville, Watertown, Burlington, and other points in our own State. A hundred or two additional visitors were looked for yesterday. The several delegations as they arrived, were received by the Turner Society of our city, and escorted to their quarters, where they were hospitably entertained. On Saturday evening, there was a brilliant torch light procession, got up by the Turners of Milwaukee, in honor of their guests. To-day, there is to be a grand procession to the feast ground on Spring street Hill, where the exercises are to be held. There will be speaking, music, gymnastic exercises, &c., and in the evening, reading, declamation and Prize Concert at Young's Hall. To-morrow there will be target shooting, fencing &c., with a grand ball in the evening and the distribution of prizes. Upon the whole, we think that the Turners will have a good time and we hope that they may be favored with fine weather.

BRIDGE BROTHERS—REMOVAL.—As will be seen from the notice in to-day's paper, Messrs. BRIDGE BROTHERS have removed from their old stand on East Water street, two doors south of the Walker House, to their new, spacious and elegant offices in the basement of the State Bank, on the corner of East Water and Michigan streets. Messrs. BRIDGE Brothers, by industry, assiduity and straightforward dealing, have worked into a large business, and, in their new and enlarged quarters, may confidently count upon a proportionate increase of customers. They are prompt, reliable and wide awake men, and will faithfully attend to all business entrusted to their care.

TARGET EXCURSION.—Company A, of the Light Guard Battalion, have their annual Target Excursion to-morrow. They leave their armory at 10 o'clock in the morning, march out to Geo. B. Bingham's place, on the South side of the Menomonee, and there spend the day. A number of guests will accompany them. The Honorary members of the Light Guard are cordially invited to participate in the excursion.

PRIZES FOR THE TARGET EXCURSION.—The following prizes will be shot for by the members of Company A, Milwaukee Light Guard, at their target excursion to-morrow:

1 large silver pitcher, and 1 silver butter dish, presented by the Officers of the Company; 1 elegant coat, presented by Swaffield & Russell; 1 silver cake basket, presented by Matson, Loomis & Hoes; 1 silver tea-tray and 1 silver card basket, presented by A. B. Van Cot.

TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.—Some four or five hundred of the Turners, in their neat white uniform, accompanied with two fine bands of music (one of them Dean's Great Western band from Chicago) and carrying numerous torches, paraded our streets Saturday evening, making a brilliant display. Crowds of people, men, women and children, attracted by the show, thronged the side-walks as the procession passed along.

CORN EXCHANGE.—On and after to-day the members of the Corn Exchange resume their daily sessions at the Board of Trade rooms, in the basement of Newhall House. Hour of meeting, 9 o'clock A. M.

NEWHALL HOUSE.—Our excursion to Milwaukee last Tuesday, to be present at the opening of the above house, was truly gratifying; but we cannot go into detail this week, we will merely say it was a proud day for Milwaukee—a proud day to its enterprising lessees, Messrs. Kean & Rice, and would have been to its spirited proprietor, Daniel Newhall, Esq., if he had been present, for a more magnificent structure, and one more complete in all its arrangements cannot be found in the Western States, and probably, with the exception of the St. Nicholas and Metropolitan Hotels in New York, cannot be surpassed in the United States. We exchanged courtesies with many of our editorial brethren in this and adjoining States, of which we will speak more fully next week, as we are much behind our time in going to press.—Jeffersonian.

For the Daily Sentinel.

City Nuisances—Can they be Abated.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I beg to intrude on your patience for a few moments. I am a native of the City of Gotham, a large and populous town situated on Manhattan Island, surrounded by water, and consequently dirty and dusty; fertile in rascality and crime, and well "Wooded." We have in that village many nuisances—we formerly had many more, among them were the unrestrained cows, hogs and dogs, which used to roam, root and bite at pleasure.

I like Milwaukee; I think it one of the gems on the lake shore; I admire its beautiful buildings, its spacious avenues, its honest and kind-hearted citizens. I am fond of the largest liberty, as applied to all mankind. I am an advocate for freedom in its largest sense, but am entirely opposed to the freedom of beef, pork and incipient messages in the public streets. But a few mornings since, whilst tramming the vines of a friend up town, I heard a rustling of leaves and on repairing to the spot, found my friend's newly grafted trees entirely ruined by the depredations of a number of cows that reached over the fence and in a few moments injured one of your most respected citizens not only in store and in pocket, but in equanimity and peace of mind.

This, I understand, is a common occurrence, and not only trees are pruned, but at times corn, peas and potatoes are rooted up, or entirely destroyed by those friends of green things.

I am here for the purpose of selecting a residence, of investing my funds, but am sadly disappointed. I have fallen in love with your beautiful city, but am down upon your street rangers. My residence has been on Long Island, where there is no settlement of even 100 inhabitants without severe restrictions on ranging animals and severe penalties for their depredations, and I cannot understand why your glorious city, set upon a hill, should suffer such a nuisance.

Are you even as New York badly governed? Have you a "Fernando" among you? Have you no City Fathers? Are your City and state authorities at war? Have you no police? No pound for cattle? No sanctuary to abate nuisances? I pause for reply. I desire to come among you. I wish a retreat from the toils of business like on your inviting lake shore. I am fond of fruit trees and flowers. I am fond of milk, beef, tongue and ham, but I do not like city-fed. I have drank swill milk and ate poor meat. I wish to enjoy the good things of this earth, and to have my handiwork in the garden unmolested; in fact, I wish to do my own digging and pruning, and not die the death of a dog, but fear I will have to seek farther.

Please inform me through your columns whether there is any probability of the abatement of the above mentioned nuisances, that I may determine whether to invest in Milwaukee, or elsewhere.

Yours, &c.,
A NEW YORKER.

The South Exultant.

The recent raid of Gov. Walker upon the city of LAWRENCE, and his high-handed attempt to coerce the Free State men of Kansas into submission to the infamous enactments of the Border Ruffian Legislature, excites the liveliest satisfaction among the ultra pro-Slavery men of the South, and has revived in full force their hopes of making Kansas a Slave State. Penetrated with gratitude to the Federal Government for this active interference in behalf of the "peculiar institution," the Montgomery (Alabama) Advertiser thus calls upon "every true Southern men to stand by the Administration," which is fighting their battles:

"We publish with the highest satisfaction the following proclamation of Gov. Walker of Kansas. Everything in that territory is rapidly coming right, and those who thought that the influence of the Administration would be thrown against the South, will now discover how widely they were mistaken. All the extravagant efforts of the opposition to spread distrust through the ranks of the democratic party, will find Governor Walker, under instructions from the President, has actually brought an armed force into the field to put down the rebellious Free Soilers.—They defy the Government. At this hour it becomes the duty of every true Southern man to stand by the Administration—it is fighting our battle—let us give it all the strength we can, by electing its friends."

It is certainly a novel, if not an ingloious occupation for the Army of the United States, to be used in "putting down rebellious free soilers," who are trying to fashion the institutions of Kansas to suit themselves. Had a Federal, or Whig, or a Republican Administration employed the standing army of the Republic in an attempt to coerce the public sentiment in any part of the Union, or its dependencies, what a clamor of indignant remonstrance would have risen from the thousand-voiced democratic press of the country! And yet how silent and acquiescent this same press is while Gov. Walker lays siege to Lawrence with his fifteen hundred regular troops, and boasts of his determination, with the help of U. S. sabres and bayonets, to compel "the rebellious Free Soilers" to pay taxes imposed by the Border Ruffians, to obey laws enacted by a bogus Legislature, and to adopt institutions prescribed by the "Blue Lodges" of Missouri and the Slavery Propagandists of the South. No wonder that the recent elections have resulted, in all the Southern States, so overwhelmingly in favor of the Sham Democracy. The late demonstration of Gov. Walker, under instructions from the President, and backed by the armies of the U. S., has satisfied the most skepitical and exacting friends of Slavery that the Administration is "fighting their battles," and is entitled, therefore, to their unhesitating confidence and warmest support. But what a battle for a professedly Democratic Administration to fight! A battle to pollute the soil and poison the air of FREE KANSAS by the forced introduction of the inhuman and iniquitous system of SLAVERY!

Repudiating its Friends.

The Madison Argus is displeased at our late paragraph, showing the "takings on" of the Charleston Mercury about the Union. The Argus says:

The Sentinel, which makes pretensions to common intelligence, ought to have the common honesty to add that the Charleston Mercury is an ultra disunion paper—that is as fierce in denouncing President Buchanan, as it is in denouncing the black republicans, and that it sustains the same relation to the sober, commonsense public opinion of the South that Garrison's Liberator, or any ultra Abolition paper in New York or Massachusetts, does to the sober, common-sense public opinions of the North.

We do not think that the Argus' practice has agreed with its theory—nor do we think that facts will bear it out in its assertions. We have a very distinct recollection of several articles in which the "ravings" of the "Garrisonians" have been charged by that paper as identifying them with the Republican party. But let that pass.—South Carolina voted for Mr. Buchanan, in the full confidence that he would, better than any other, carry out her policy. That policy is Ultra-Pro-Slavery at all hazards, Union or no Union. That is the Mercury's policy. The "sober, common sense public opinion of the South," has no expression; none is allowed. The Mercury, the Richmond and New Orleans papers, of the most ultra sort, and the demagogues everywhere who frighten the people of the South by lies about the Republican party—they make the "public opinion" which rules there; and the fact stands as we stated, that the Northern Doughfaces find in quotations from papers like the Mercury the threats of Disunion with which they frighten and deceive the Union-loving people of the North in their support.

Detroit & Milwaukee Railway.

We learn from the Detroit Advertiser of Wednesday last, that the Board of Control, who are charged with the distribution of the Public lands, donated by Congress to the State of Michigan in aid of various Railroad enterprises, have granted 53,000 acres of those lands to the Detroit & Milwaukee R. R. Company, upon the completion of their road from Ionia to Grand Haven. This grant, says the Advertiser, insures the subscription of stock in England sufficient to finish and fully equip the road at once. A few months more, therefore, will see this new and direct thoroughfare completed and open for business. MILWAUKEE will then be a point in the great air-line route from the Atlantic sea-board to the Upper Mississippi and the vast regions beyond, and its consequent growth in business, population and wealth, will outstrip even the expectations of the most sanguine amongst us.

THE SOUTHERN WISCONSIN R. R.—This road, extending from Janesville, on the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R., westward to the Mississippi river, is to be opened for travel, as far as Brodhead, 22 miles west of Janesville, on and after to-morrow. The editor of the Monroe, Green county, Sentinel, writing from Brodhead, under date of Aug 25, thus speaks:

Green county is tapped! Last night, about 6 o'clock P. M., the construction train ran up to the depot for the first time. The boys fired the big gun, the engine screamed, and everybody felt remarkably happy. They have been anticipating the event for months, and now their joy is fulfilled, their hopes rejoice in the glad fruition—they feel good. So do I, and so will you.

To-day the workmen have put in two switches and laid about half a mile of rail. After one more side track, a half mile in length, is laid, the work will speed along toward the county seat The Messrs. Graham are doing all that is possible to ensure an early opening of this road to Monroe; the public may rest assured of that—The road could not be in better hands.

The crops on Sand Prairie, as well as over the whole county between Monroe and Brodhead, are most excellent. Farmers look hopeful.

Yours, as usual,
G. W. T.

Change wanted in Mail Arrangements.

The St. Paul Minnesotian calls for a change in the mail arrangements, so that the mail matter for the upper Mississippi may be sent by the way of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. through Prairie du Chien. It says:

We would, by this change in the route, be free from the annoyance of receiving two or more mails at one time, and then be as many more days without any mail, as has always been the case, winter and summer, by the route.

Our citizens might be satisfied with the present mail arrangements for the summer season, but when winter is upon us, and 300 miles of land travel intervene between this city and Dubuque, the advantages of the Prairie du Chien route will at least be double that of the Dubuque route in point of time. In fact, we have our doubts, if the mail contractor can obtain enough passengers, via Dubuque, to make it an object next winter to run his stages, as the Prairie du Chien lines will land passengers from St. Paul in Chicago at least one day sooner than passengers can be landed in Dubuque by the Walker line.

The Railroad Companies will have during the winter three lines of stages running between this city and Prairie du Chien, and there can be no question but the time saved in the transmission of the mail by this route will be at least three days over that via Dubuque. Last winter, when the railroad was unfinished for forty miles from the river, passengers leaving St. Paul, via Winnoda, for Chicago, saved two days time over the Dubuque route.

REGENTS OF NORMAL SCHOOLS.—We have received a copy of the "proceedings of the Board of Regents of Normal Schools, and the Regulations adopted at their first meeting," with a copy of the law creating the same. The proceedings are very well reported, and admirably arranged. Those schools and academies who have not received a copy, will be furnished on sending in their address to D. Y. KILGORE, of Madison

THE ALLEGED SEIZURE OF THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, Col. Forney's paper, states that the following are the facts, out of which has come the rumor that the United States Government had directed a naval force to take possession of Formosa:

The mission of Capt. J. D. Simms, of the U. S. Marine Corps, to the Island of Formosa, lying off the coast of China, is to a great extent misunderstood, and that it may appear in its true character, I will state the facts as I have heard them from the highest authority. Commodore Armstrong, commanding the East India Squadron, received a letter from Mr. Bluhiet, an enterprising American merchant, who, for more than a year, has been carrying on the mercantile and shipping business at Ape's Hill, island of Formosa, with the information that the American ship Highflyer, wrecked upon that Island, had been plundered, and its officers and crew murdered by the natives. Some time after, another American vessel, the Progressive, was seized by the Chinese authorities, and the officers and crew imprisoned. They were only released on the payment of a heavy ransom. All these proceedings were contrary to the express understanding with the authorities of the island, that Mr. Robinet should carry on his business unmolested, and under which he had been acting, with the American flag flying from his house for at least twelve months.

Commodore Armstrong despatched Captain Simms to inquire into and ascertain the correctness of Mr. Robinet's report. The Commodore instructed him in a cautious, prudent, and friendly manner, to learn from the authorities all that could be ascertained on the subject, reporting to him, by every opportunity, such information as he could obtain. His head-quarters were directed to be at Mr. Rouinet's, Ape's Hill, where the American flag had been flying, as stated by Mr. Robinet, by permission of the authorities for more than a year. He was to abstain from hostilities as far as possible, but, in case of necessity, he was to call upon the American ship Science. All those facts were communicated to Dr. Parker, our Commissioner to China, with the further statement that Captain Simms would be kept at Formosa until the Government could be heard from, and that this step might be necessary to legitimate a prior American foothold, in case our Government should look to future reprisals and occupancy. Dr. Parker approved what had been done. The last communication to the Government was dated April 10th, 1857, at which time nothing had been heard from Capt. Simms.

Crash Among the Stock Bleachers.—Stand from Under!

There was a pretty general stampede in Wall street yesterday, and Bulls and Bears, Lougs and Shorts, were so intermingled in the pell mell that it was difficult to distinguish one from the other. The rushing and crushing of fancy men and fancy stocks, rendered the scene rather interesting to an outsider who could feel entirely sure that his own underpinning stood in no danger. Such hurly-burlies in that region have not been so rare that the present need cause any great alarm.—The welfare of the country does not depend upon money institutions, nor upon bank agencies. The great productive resources of the Union, the cotton, and sugar, and rice, and tobacco plantations, the wheat and the corn, and the hayfields, the coal mines, the iron mines, the lead mines, the gold mines, the forests and the orchards—these are the sources of our prosperity and greatness, and while they are unharmed, no mere financial revulsion can effect the general prosperity of the city. A noiseless and hardly felt frost might be productive of more serious damage to the country than the failure of all the stock brokers and speculators in Wall street.

Indeed, we are not sure but the country at large would profit immensely by the utter prostration and extinction of the whole brood of gamblers, whose reckless and unprincipled transactions are ruining thousands of innocent victims, and bringing disaster and disgrace upon the commercial and financial character of the city.—The Stock Exchange, as at present managed, is very little more than an enormous gambling establishment—and the whole scale of its operations is quite as ruinous, quite as demoralizing, quite as inimious as any of the Broadway hells which have recently enjoyed the attention of the Metropolitan Police. When an exchange is devoted to its legitimate use—that of facilitating the exchange of real values and serving as an agent between buyers and sellers, who lack the leisure, the skill, or the knowledge to transact of this kind for themselves, it is undoubtedly a useful and laudable institution. But the New York Stock Exchange does just enough of this kind of business to keep up appearances. The principal occupation of its members is gambling, and, they carry it on by a systematic cheating, more inimous than playing with loaded dice, or any of the devices which brand the professional and law-hunted gambler. They swindle not only the men who play the game with them, but they rob every person who happens to have his savings invested in the stock which supplies the material for their nefarious schemes.—New York Times, 26th.

SUSPENSION OF JAMES L. LYELL.—We regret to announce the temporary suspension of James L. Lyell, Banker of this city. His doors were closed shortly after noon to-day. Mr. Lyell is in New York and sent a dispatch to Col. Anderson this forenoon ordering the doors to be closed. Of course, until he returns, no explanation can be given of the state of his affairs. It is only known that it grows out of the failure of the Ohio Life and Trust Co., of which institution he was a large correspondent.

We think from all our inquiries, that we are perfectly correct in assuring our readers who are his depositors, that they are perfectly safe and need have no fears as to the ultimate result. He has undoubtedly closed temporarily to protect himself and his depositors.—Detroit Tribune, Aug. 27.

For a fit of ambition, go into the church-yard and read the grave-stones. They will tell you the end of ambition. The grave will soon be your bed-chamber, the earth your pillow, corruption your father, and the worm your mother and sister.

Another Dreadful Colliery Explosion in England—Forty Lives Lost.

The Manchester papers of August 8th, contain the following:

Shortly after one o'clock on Friday afternoon, an explosion took place in a coal pit near Ashton, by which it was at once apprehended that more than thirty persons must have lost their lives, and there no longer exists any hope that the estimate was an exaggeration. This deplorable accident occurred at the Heyes Colliery, within half a mile of Ashton Town Hall. There are five seams in the colliery, but only two of them lately have been worked, and these are distinguished as the two-feet mine. There are three shafts, one up east and two down-east. At six o'clock in the morning, about fifteen men descended to work in the two feet mine, which is 165 yards down, and another party, whose number was between 30 and 40, descended the No. 1 down-east shaft, to work in the new mine, which is 225 yards down. There appears to have been not the least alarm until, at the time stated, the neighborhood was thrown into consternation by the noise of an explosion in the No. 1 down east shaft, which shook the houses near the pit, and was heard for a very considerable distance around. Almost at the same instant, an immense quantity of smoke and dust was shot up with such force as to break the iron plating at the mouth of the pit.

The men who had been working in the two-feet mine, ascended by the No. 2 down-east shaft as soon as they heard the noise. Great numbers of people were immediately attracted to the spot, and amongst them were a number of men from the neighboring collieries of the Fairbottom Company, and of Messrs Lees, who at once proposed to descend the No. 1 down-east shaft to the new mine, in which it was feared that all the workmen had perished. Under superintendence of Mr. Pearce, the manager, and Mr. Garside, the under-looker, preparations were promptly made for stopping up the various openings and restoring the air-currents. As soon as possible Mr. Garside descended with a party of volunteers, including several of those who had escaped from the two-feet mine. They were supplied with materials for stopping up the openings of the workings, which the explosion had deranged.—At the top of the incline they found the engineer still living, but severely burnt, and he was conveyed home.

It was found impossible to make a very rapid progress along the incline, but by about 9 o'clock at night the under-looker and his assistants had penetrated about 250 yards, searching the workings as they proceeded, and had found the bodies of five men. Further advance was suspended for several hours, by the necessity which became apparent of carefully retracing the ground already passed over, to take additional precautions against the escape of the after-damp through the openings. About half-past eight o'clock Mr. Dickenson, inspector of mines for the Manchester district, arrived at the pit, and remained there through the night, expressing himself satisfied with what had been done to recover the bodies.

The difficulty of clearing a passage farther was very great, but the number of volunteers augmented, and the energetic exertions have been made; the result of which is that seventeen bodies have been recovered by 9 o'clock on Saturday evening. Elliot, the engineer, is still alive, but it is doubtful whether he will recover. Another man is reported to have been hurt severely, but not fatally. Ever since the moment of the explosion, the ground near the pit has been thronged by hundreds of people. There have been sad assemblages of anxious inquirers and of mourning relatives, and the scene has been one of distressing excitement. Nothing is yet mentioned to give a clue to the cause of the explosion. A number of lamps have been found, but all of them were unopened.—The shaft was sunk in 1823, but the mine had then been worked for 30 years from one of the other shafts. By 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon 31 bodies had been recovered from the pit, and as 8 persons are still missing, the estimated number of lives lost is now increased to 39. There are still 40 men constantly engaged in exploring the mine, and it is thought probable that the whole of the bodies may be recovered during the night. The greatest precautions to avoid the after-damp, but there is otherwise not much obstruction.

The heirs of Dr. Burdell have agreed upon Wm. Burdell and Geo. D. Bulin, as the parties for whom they will apply to have letters granted of administration upon the estate of Dr. Burdell. Wm. Burdell is a brother of the deceased and resides in Ohio. Mr. Bulin is a brother-in-law of Dr. Burdell, and resides in this city. These parties will file the proper securities in a day or two. The heirs have continued in possession of the real estate ever since the Doctor's decease.—Measures will be speedily taken to have it partitioned among the heirs.

Whatever claim Mrs. Cunningham may put in for right of dower cannot prevent any partition or sale of the real estate. In case of her putting in a claim, any disposition made of the estate or any portion of it must, however, be made subject to the final decision upon this claim. The recent decision of the Surrogate affects the personal estate only—whatever there is appertaining to this portion of the estate that has not already been disposed of will be sold within a few days. Authoritative information now states his entire estate, real and personal, as worth about $40,000. Of this $33,000 was real estate, and $7,000 personal property. The personal consisted of stock in the Artisans Bank, of this city, and his dental apparatus, books, furniture, &c., at No. 31 Bond street. The real estate embraces Nos. 3 and 31 Bond street, and some land and buildings in Herkimer Co.—N. Y. Times, 28th.

STAMPEDE OF SLAVES.—On Saturday a number of slaves belonging to various citizens of the district, obtained a covered wagon, under pretense of going to the camp-meeting in the adjoining county. They departed, but have not returned, and the owners have reason to believe that they have emigrated by the Underground Railroad. Some fifteen slaves are missing, most of them belonging in this city and county. Among the losers are Messrs. Linton, Randolph Barbaugh and Isaac Scaggs. Officers have been in search of the fugitives, but up to this time none have been recovered.—Washington Star, August 25.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.—The Paterson (N. J.) Guardian, in alluding to the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Acquackanonk township in that State, says:

"Mrs. Moore died on Sabbath morning, of dysentery, aged 72. The neighbors congregated at the house to the funeral yesterday, and were just carrying the corpse out of the door when Mr. Moore died of the same disease. Mr. Moore was aged 97, and he has always lived where they died. Mrs. Moore was his second wife, Both were very quiet, yet very much respected. Today the funeral of the husband takes place, and both will be enclosed within one grave and in one box.

VULGAR WORDS.—There is as much connection between the words and the thoughts as there is between the thoughts and the words—the latter are not only the expressions of the former but they have power to re-act upon the soul and leave the stain of corruption there.—A young man who allows himself to use profane or vulgar words, has not only sworn that there is a foul spot on his mind, but by the utterance of that word he extends the spot and inflames it, till by indulgence it will soon pollute and ruin the whole soul. Be careful of your words as well as your thoughts. If you can control the tongue, that no improper words be pronounced by it, you will soon be able to control the mind and save it from corruption.

A BACHELOR.—A man who passes through life without marrying is like a fair mansion left by the builder unfinished. The half that is finished runs to decay from neglect, or becomes at best a sorry tenement, wanting the addition of that which makes the useful.

WOMAN.—Man hath fleece about him, which enables him to bear the buffetings of the storm; but woman, when young, lovely, and poor, is as but woman, when young, lovely, and poor, is as a shorn lamb, for which the wind has not been tempered.

Newspapers in Kansas.

Newspapers are increasing in numbers, at least, if not in quality and circulation, in this "embryo state."

There are two papers printed in Lawrence.

The Republican, (by Norman Allen and T. Dwight Thatcher,) is very popular in Lawrence and throughout the Territory. It represents the opinions of that portion of the party of which Robinson and Lane are the leaders.

The Herald of Freedom, (G. W. Brown, proprietor,) once a limited circulation, and still less influence in Kansas, but the accident of its destruction by the border ruffians, and the energetic system of appealing for aid adopted by the editor, obtained for it a large outside circulation.

It is running down fast. It is Walker's free state organ. It is antagonistic to the Topeka constitution, and is becoming quite popular with the national democrats. An abolitionist is an assistant editor, while a member of the bogus legislature is a constant and favorite contributor! It is the organ of the territorial Know Nothings, as well as Gov. Walker.

Topeka supports a free state paper—the Tribune—edited by the brothers Ross. It always supports the regular platform of the party. It is one of the pioneers.

Lecompton has two weekly newspapers—the Union, (border ruffian,) and the National Democrat, the pro-slavery organ of Gov. Walker.

PRAIRIE CITY supports a little weekly paper—the Freeman's Champion—edited by S. S. Prouty. Prairie City is a thriving little village thirteen miles south of Lawrence, where the northern methodists are erecting a university or college.

EMPORIA, (a "city" of five separate and distinct houses situated seventy-five miles southwest of Lawrence,) supports a spicy and spirited journal called the Emporia News, edited by Mr. Plumb, recently of the Xenia News, Ohio, and Mr. R. J. Hinton, the "Typo" Kansas correspondent of the Boston Traveler. The News advocates the creed of a very large wing of the party, which is not only free state, but anti-slavery, and of which Mr. Phillips and Mr. Conway, may be cited as the representative men. It urges political action from the stand point of principle, instead of expediency and popular favor. It will make its mark.

CENTREVILLE, a would be town, which boasts of half a dozen shingles and log huts, issues a paper called the Leader, a pseudo-free state journal, which is published, however, rather for the purpose of puffing the town site than paying expenses, or controlling political action. It has neither influence nor circulation.

Tecumseh has a pro-slavery sheet named the Note Book. I have not seen it. I read an extract from the introductory article. The editor speaks several times of the "corpse editorial." The Chindowan say that that's G. W. Brown.

These papers are all published south of the Kansas river. A paper is to be published soon, if it is not already issued, at Manhattan, at the juncture of the Big Blue and the Kaw.—Correspondence of St. Louis Democrat.
